Old Business:

- PTA Auction
 - Discussion of rescheduling to approximately September 25
 - Fall Parent Teacher Conference will be scheduled in the future to accommodate these changes
- Ms. Chocolate and Yankee Candle
 - Orders were placed into Ms. Chocolate however coordination of delivery has been placed on hold.
 - Yankee Candle orders were not submitted
- Tax Status
 - David Montuori (Teacher) and Patricia Mackey (Teacher) have worked diligently in the restoration of the RKS PTA status with the IRS. We are awaiting an update on the status. Once cleared we will be able to participate in collaborative opportunities with businesses.
- Extra-Curricular
 - Sensory show scheduled for Willet will be offered in the fall.
- Jason Project
 - Team is putting together an alternative showcase to demonstrate the students work.

New Business

- Staff Appreciation
 - Discussion in the meeting focused on celebrating staff and parents during the pandemic.

- Potential welcome back party/celebration may be an option when we return to the building
- Ceremonies
 - Moving up ceremonies were discussed for the students. The program will explore how to incorporate a means to celebrate the accomplishments of those students transitioning to Middle and High school.
- Supporting Students
 - Social Stories for Wearing Masks
 - Sharon Insana will share social stories with families, to be posted on the website and shared by classroom teachers.
 - Staff will work on de-sensitizing students on wearing a mask.

Next meeting will be Tuesday May 5th at 11:30 am.

Topics to be discussed including scheduling a calendar and budget for next school year.

Anyone that did not participate in the previous meeting and is interested, please email the principal to be included and receive notification.
